- I recommended people already. Can I get extra time for that?
We really appreciate all the positive word of mouth and that is why we created Friend to Friend. Past referrals can’t be counted but from now on send your link to get your extended subscription.

- Do I have to have an active subscription to get extra time?
Yes, the reward is extra time on your existing, active account.

- If my account expires and then I renew, does my friend count start over?
No, your number of friends is counted from when you started using your referrals. If your subscription expires and you renew later you pick up where you left off.

- My friend signed up, but I didn’t get my extra time added. How can I get my extra time?
First, make sure your friend has actually opened a Full Subscription and if so, send us an email with the details.

- My subscription ended just yesterday, but my friend was late and signed up today. Can I get my extra two months?
Yes, it will be added to your subscription when you renew.

- The extra time is cool, but I’m a student and I live in a cave. Can I get a discount instead?
No, extra time is the reward.

- Is there a limit to how many people I can share my referral link with?
No, reach out to everyone.

- I want to help a friend of mine who signs up. Can I give them my extra 2 months?
No, but once they subscribe they can pass it along and get the rewards too.

- A lifetime subscription! Is this for real?!
Yes, it is. Your music needs will be covered forever.
